

Chapter 38. Biosecurity Quiz

1. A pathogen is defined as any infectious agent that causes disease. Circle the correct answer.
  - a. viruses
  - b. bacteria
  - c. prions
  - d. all of the above
2. Loss of marketing options can be one of the adverse effects of disease.
  - a. True
  - b. False
3. Calves born from females that were pregnant at the time they were tested negative for bovine viral diarrhea virus persistent infection (BVDV PI) must be tested as soon after birth as possible.
  - a. True
  - b. False
4. The ultimate information source for producers needing advice concerning diseases that limit access to international trade markets is; Circle the correct answer.
  - a. County extension educator
  - b. Local veterinarian
  - c. OSU Teaching Hospital
  - d. APHIS Area Veterinarian in Charge (AVIC)
5. Who is in charge for the level of Biosecurity on your livestock operation? Circle the correct answer.
  - a. APHIS Area Veterinarian in Charge
  - b. Your veterinarian
  - c. You
  - d. State Veterinarian
6. Which type of livestock operation should and could have the highest level of Biosecurity?
  - a. Stocker operation
  - b. Seed-stock operation
  - c. Feedlot operation
  - d. Commercial cow-calf operation
7. Which one of the following pathogens demands that dogs be denied direct contact to feedstuffs in order to prevent disease exposure to breeding cattle?
  - a. Anaplasma
  - b. Tuberculosis
  - c. Neospora
  - d. Coccidia
8. Biosecurity goals occur at the national, state, local and herd level in order to protect, which of the following areas? Circle the correct answer.
  - a. Animal health
  - b. Human health
  - c. National economy
  - d. All of the above

Kirkpatrick, August 6, 2009

9. Zoonotic diseases are diseases that can be transferred from animal to man.
  - a. True
  - b. False
10. Re-entry of animals into herd that are returning from livestock shows and fairs is not considered a biosecurity risk.
  - a. True
  - b. False